Bill Hanway,
Regional Operation Officer and Vice President,
EDAW

Bill Hanway is the Regional Operations Officer and a Vice President of the company. He trained and qualified as an architect in the United States and has been with EDAW London since 1997. He has 18 years of professional experience; combining the design and delivery of buildings with the urban design and the master planning of new environments.

Bill provides the design leadership and management of EDAW's multi-disciplinary teams and works in the United Kingdom, Continental Europe, United States and the Middle East. His projects consistently communicate the contribution that effective and high quality design can make to the commercial success of projects. In the United Kingdom, his work focuses on urban regeneration projects, new community designs and commercial developments. Internationally, his projects also include sustainable university planning, new town developments, eco-tourism/resort and entertainment/leisure destinations.
